FOREWORD

"A motion picture is a series of separate pictures projected upon a screen and changed so rapidly that the eye receives the effect of continuous motion."

In the school year of 1942-43, events have moved in swift succession. . . . The Crier of 1943 attempts to focus this changing scene.

CHEERS FOR MISS HEAVER

MISS KATHRYN HEAVER

We, the senior class of 1943, dedicate our Crier to Miss Kathryn Heaver whose high ideals and kind understanding, coupled with wisdom and sincerity, serve as a goal toward which we strive.

MR. J. W. TIDD

With sincere gratitude we thank you, Mr. Tidd, for your kind understanding, your excellent advice, your quiet guiding hand. The twinkle in your eye proves that humor can be found in a principal. You have shown us the right path throughout four years of high school and your wise counsel will follow us through all the rest of our lives.

MR. A. L. HENDERSON

Truly an individual, Mr. Henderson, you have qualities which have set a high ideal in our hearts—sincerity, good judgment, kindness. From first grade through twelfth we have looked to you for help and guidance. Your wise philosophy and sound advice—as well as your hearty, good-natured laughter—will stay in our hearts forever.

"Life Begins at 8:30!!" For every high school student that is only too true. All our interests are centered around school activities.

Since most of our waking hours find us involved—in one way or another—in the educational things of life, we really learn to know and appreciate the faculty. Each teacher has made his contribution toward molding our characters. After four years of seeing our "beaming countenances," one would think that the teachers would forget the meaning of patience; but they go on keeping lessons interesting and study halls awake.

We don't believe that there is any other school where classes learn any more or have as much fun. The most important advantages of our education are acquiring as much knowledge as possible and, at the same time, enjoying the friendship of teachers whom we will never forget.

This year we girls have been counseled by Miss Smith, the new dean of girls. Although there have been a few blue slips floating around, we find her very understanding and truly interested in our welfare.

As teachers they're perfect and as chaperons and advisers they're tops. Since every class and social organization has its adviser, we learn to consider them simply as one of us. They are as enthusiastic about planning our activities as we are in attending them.

It has been said that it's the little things in life that count. This is our biggest reason for thinking that our faculty is one of the best. Those little, unimportant things—a cheery greeting in the hall, a helpful suggestion here and there, and their cheerful co-operation in everything—count most.

We know that we are going into a world completely new to us. We can only hope that throughout our lives there will be others who will be as willing to give us a little boost when we need it.

A FLASHBACK

Let us turn our calendar back into the Dark Ages . . . a September morn in 1931. One hundred twenty little tots reluctantly left their mothers' hands to start their long anticipated adventure—SCHOOL. Of this number, forty-nine were destined to be members of twelve years standing in the class of '43.

We sailed through the first eight years in a whirlwind of readin', writin', and 'rithmetic. Upon finding any spare time, we diligently mastered several extra-curricular activities, such as bubble blowing, paper wad shooting, rubber band snapping, and sly (??) note passing—all in all, we felt much accomplished when we were ready to "cross the arch."

With a mutual sigh of relief between teachers and students, our little brood, 163 strong, began a new life as Freshmen. Our frolicking in the halls was quickly subdued by all 5' 1" of the third floor chief, who put us in our proper place (this all too often was studyhall). Depending upon the course followed, we studiously endeavored to master Latin verbs, mechanical drawing, or the sewing machine. We quickly learned that we no longer felt confident at test time—3:00 A.M. cramming was in order six times a year.

As Sophomores our social life broadened to include theater parties, dances, and scavenger hunts. We discarded those bothersome locks on our lockers and bravely went down the north stairs when it was more convenient . . . only to turn quickly and proceed with the crowd when we encountered Mr. Tidd.

1941, we held the rank of Juniors—upperclassmen to be sure!!! What!!! Still no escalators, but some other very promising improvements. A new department was added to help consume some of the surplus energy in the school, the girls' gym class. Sore muscles, stoved fingers, and straight hair were outgrowths of these periods. An imposing stadium was built to complement our fine football field. Of course everyone was proud of this addition, and the team had enthusiastic support from spirited fans. Not only the students now attended the games, but also Mother, Father, Neighbor, and everyone else in the community.

Thus on to our last year. We, one hundred twenty-seven worldly-wise students, finally gained that goal toward which we had been striving for eleven years. We were the Seniors!!!!

Wilfred (better known as Junior) Glover served his third term as president of the class of '43. Assisting him were Fred Green, Vice President; Marilyn Divelbiss, Secretary; and Betty Brown, Treasurer.

"We have crossed the bay, the ocean lies before us," was the class motto. Silver and blue were chosen as the class colors; and the red rose was the flower.

Suddenly, into our sheltered lives loomed the great world problem—the war. It was a serious thing and a topic of deep discussion. To the fellows, the question of the teen-age draft was a pertinent one.

The last semester we might have been rightfully accused of taking it easy, but the general feeling seemed to be "all out" for a good time. Other than this outbreak of Senioritis, an epidemic most dreaded by the faculty, our class was a healthy, normal group.

In general, activities were carried on as usual. Pictures were taken for better or worse; announcements and cards were ordered; and we sailed merrily on into May and a round of activities. On the lighter side were the Senior Play, parties, and the Prom where the class colors proved appropriate to carry out the timely patriotic decorations. The annual Senior chapel program was held, at which time the Senior history, will, and prophecy were read. On the serious side were caps and gowns, baccalaureate, commencement, final partings . . . reluctant to leave but eager to begin anew—Farewell to the past! Hail to the future! May it hold happiness and success for all.

IN MEMORIAM

MARY KATHRYN FOLEY

And then we think of one who in her youthful beauty died,
The fair meek blossom that grew up and faded by our side.
In the cold moist earth we laid her, when the forests brought the leaf,
And we wept that one so lovely should have a life so brief.
Yet not unmeet it was that one, like that young friend of ours,
So gentle and so beautiful, should perish 'mid the flowers.

—Bryant.

"Best Foot Forward"—left or right does not matter, for the Senior Class really stepped out when it presented this Broadway comedy.

A room in the boys' dormitory at Winsocki provides a spot for much excitement, when Bud Hooper (T. McVey) becomes involved with two dates for the school's Senior Prom. One is a sweet innocent girl, Helen Schlessinger (G. Ruscoe); the other is a typical "sweater girl" movie queen, Gale Joy (M. Divelbiss).

For adventure's sake only, Bud writes Gale and invites her to the dance. When she accepts, he finds himself in trouble with the school principal, Dr. Reeber (R. Haig), the chaperone, Miss Smith (M. Eder), and his best girl, Helen.

His room-mates, Dutch (B. Cooper) and Hunk (R. Johnston), do not help matters when they too decide to enjoy Miss Joy's company. In fact, all the Winsocki fellows (played by Chuck Elliott, and B. Yeager) prefer her presence to their original dates, except the greatly dejected Bud, who has lost his girl and been expelled from school.

Helen appeals to Gale for aid, but Gale is not in an "aiding" mood, for the girls (F. Miller, C. Baker, D. Hurtig, and M. Hossel) have jealously "attacked" her—souvenirs as their motive—and spoiled her beautiful gown. However, after a little consideration, Gale is persuaded. She succeeds in having her picture taken with old Doc Reeber, and threatens to show it to the School Board unless he reinstates Bud. Thus falls the curtain with Gale's being chosen Senior Prom Queen and Helen and Bud's being reunited.

Other characters were Professor Lloyd (Cal Elliott); Jack Haggerty, Gale's manager (J. Campbell); and an old grad (D. Jenkins).

Much praise is sent to the deserving cast who presented "Best Foot Forward" and to Mr. Bohn for his fine directing.

FRESHMAN CLASS

With president Jack Shurtleff assisted by Buddy Beatty as vice-president, Joan Fell as secretary, and Phillys Blythe as treasurer, the Freshman Class began its high school years.

This year's class, wisely guided by Miss Heaver, was one of the largest in Boardman's history. They were well represented on the football field, the basketball floor, the track team, and on the honor roll. They also contributed two new cheerleaders, who added zest and spirit to the games.

It didn't take long for that certain greenness to wear off, and they became an indispensable part of the high school. Some of the bolder ones even dared to go down the north stairs, run in the halls, and pass notes in study-hall!!!!!! Though this sounds shocking, let us assure you that it was perfectly normal.

At the end of the year, the class held its picnic where everyone ate too much, fell in the water, and had a good time in general.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

The Sophomore Class entered its second year with Dick Bretz as president; Jack Bott, vice-president; Charlotte Chuck, secretary; Helen Roberts, treasurer; and Miss Atkinson as faculty adviser.

They expanded socially but because of tire and gas rationing the traditional activities of the underclassmen, such as scavenger hunts and roller skating parties were curtailed. In their stead came these familiar quotations: "I'll be at your house at 7:45, and we can get to the Newport in time for the second show." or—"I'll meet you on the 7:20 Toonerville."

The only social function promoted by the class was its picnic at the end of the year. It was well attended and everyone ruined himself, as was expected. Baseball games and hiking (oh yes, AND eating) occupied the main part of the day.

The class filled its position as Sophomores well, and is now ready to move forward to the rank of Juniors and upperclassmen.

JUNIOR CLASS

The Junior Class sailed through the year with Bill Moran at the helm and Harry round as his first mate. La Una Shenefiel was in charge of the class log, and Dick Frame handled the finances. Miss Rukenbrod was the class navigator.

They sponsored the bi-weekly dances in the fall and again in the spring. They were well attended and swelled the class treasury considerably. A committee was appointed and the ring was chosen. That giant extravaganza, the Prom, which was planned and managed by the Junior Class, was the crowning social triumph of the year.

The class had an exceptionally high number of members on the honor roll, and they also contributed much to the sports events, both in participators and boosters.

They held their annual picnic in the spring. At the time the annual goes to press, we aren't so sure how the food situation will be handled, but someone will come through with a good idea and spirits will be at the usual high point at this exclusive class get-together.

Boardman Crier has gone to war!! "War against Thelma Rankine," the '43 editor, was waged without a doubt. As if having the engraver's representative inducted into the Army weren't sufficient, Mrs. Weimer, tops as an annual adviser, was "California bound" to her soldier hubby. Nevertheless, Thelma and her staff conquered the "priority" situations and produced this annual—The Boardman Crier of 1943.

As Business Manager, Fred Green struggled so hard that—well, the result is plainly seen! Scurrying about like experienced camera sleuths were Bobsy Peterman and her assistants, who photographed the excellent shots which are scattered throughout the book. Since artistic design played such an important part, the Crier was fortunate to have Robert Robbins, Philip Rodway, Beverly Wilcox, and Roberta Pool wielding the brush and pen.

The yearbook would not be in its entirety without the feature articles and unofficial calendar as recounted by Barbara Williamson and her reporters. Handling the boy's line of sports were Bill Strang and Ed Johnston. Girls also participate in the athletic life as shown by Alice Raful and Alyce Steck.

The presentation of the activities of the school year and the devising of complimentary (??) characterizations of the Seniors maintain a position of importance in any class book. These were brought to us by various members of the staff. Without the typists' patience and diligence, the annual could not have been issued.

Last but not least the editor wishes to send her appreciation to Miss Reeder who assumed her work as advisor at the mid-year, and to Mr. Tidd who guided the production of the year book as wisely as ever.

Now the Boardman Crier of 1943 is yours.

ANNUAL STAFF--COME AND GET IT

"Now be sure that material is in on time!!" That was the constant cry of Charlotte Baker, the editor of the Bugle. Pep and perfection was the aim of the '43 Bugle staff.

Aiding the exceptionally lively editor was assistant editor, Frances Miller. Marilyn Hossel and Jimmy Rindin reported the news items while the sports parade was written by Tom McVey. Parties, meetings, and clubs were reviewed in an interesting style by Margaret Chuck. The compilers of those sharp (?) remarks and funny (?) jokes were Frances Datson and Marilyn Divelbiss. Alice Raful brought stories of neighboring schools, and also the original "Studyhall Coach" article, which stimulated Boardman's school spirit. Cartooning the pages (and doing a fine job, too) were Robert Robbins, Robert Morelli, and Russell Skinner.

Roy Kemper really showed a miserly characteristic in his economical managing of the business transactions of the Bugle. Bill Moran and Harry Grant had the easy (who's being funny?) job of being production managers. Circulating the Bugles to various rooms was Ann Quaranto's elective. David C. Loveland let no business man rest until he had promised to advertise in the school paper.

Many thanks and much praise are extended to the advisers whose guidance made the Bugle really successful—Mr. Bohn and Mr. Ballinger!

Worthy of mentioning was that haunting, hair-raising Halloween Party held for the staff. Ghosts and goblins were very prevalent—Frances and Charlotte, for instance!

We won't forget those Christmas and April Fool editions either. They were certainly "done up brown"! But April Fool has long been past and we must leave with our last good wish—for the editor of 1944.

Listen! Here's the story of your own life in the library this year. You're the average student who, while pretending to obtain a book, gathers the daily gossip and hears the latest jokes.

Improvements are abundant. For instance, your report on the latest army maneuvers is found in a jiffy by searching the clippings in the vertical file cabinet. The bulletin boards are so inviting this year that you are tempted to visit the library more than twice a week. Strict rules forbid this and you stay in study hall with geometry.

New books are so numerous, there's never time to get reservations on half of them. Featured also is the new Encyclopedia Britannica, which is most helpful.

Real interest is shown by every library assistant. When you ask her, "Are there any good books in lately?" She never fails to survey the newly-lettered shelves and point out a book.

Romance not only happens in books! It happens to the best—for example Miss Green. You congratulate her both on her marriage and splendid work. Her efforts can not and will not be forgotten. Much credit must be given to her, for her management brought forth an efficient staff and a really well-equipped library.

Yes, you enjoyed not only the educational purposes of the library but also the recreational values. The pleasure of looking through magazines still lingers in your mind. Perhaps, if you're a senior, you viewed college life in colorful bulletins. It has been a wonderful year in the library!

LIBRARY STAFF--IN WHICH WE SERVE

We interrupt your jam session, kids, to give you a little theatrical news by transcription. Although it's being done, this club didn't conscript any of its selectees when there appeared a sign: WANTED NEW MEMBERS! It was all done voluntarily by persons wishing to add their talent. All were expected to demonstrate before judges in a short selected play. Those passing the examination were thrown into 1-A. They soon enlisted and joined the ranks, swelling the company to thirty-seven.

Everything being complete for the starting of another year, the new officers—mainly Marilyn Hossel, president; Alice Raful, vice-president; Grayce Ruscoe, scribe; Frances Datson, treasurer—started a program with plans of launching more new plays.

Since entertainment is needed to keep morale up, a hilarious Halloween party with the Bugle staff took place in the fall. New and old members not only had fun but also learned how to look frightened naturally.

At each meeting, prominent speakers and club members proceeded to give valuable information (not military secrets) on lighting effects, make-up and precious points for amateur acting. "Do I sound like that?" was a comment made by everyone one evening when they made records of their voices. "Sounds like there's need for improvement."

Real action was soon taken. Senior members presented on Chapel the first play called "Differential Kindness." Soon afterwards, the club visited the Playhouse and saw "George Washington Slept Here." Everyone liked the idea of seeing a play instead of giving one.

Finally spring rolled around and the anxious we-want-to-be-actors produced two comedies and a skit for the Stageset Benefit.

"All that they are and all that they ever hope to be" is owed to Mr. Bohn whose guidance brought another swell year.

Are you all alone? Sure no one is reading over your shoulder? This is agent G. R. 43, ready to report to you on the actions of the Avida Girl Reserves, but remember, it is strictly confidential.

The club really blazed its way in society this year, and I do mean blazed. Agent No. 1 tells us that they started off around a roaring campfire, where they sang songs, munched apples and made plans for the coming year. The first plan had to do with a style show, using some of the girls themselves as models; however our spy was so dazzled by the glamorous clothes, that as yet, we haven't received a complete report on this meeting. Agent No. 13 tried to attend the Halloween Party disguised as a witch, but one of those prank-playing ghosts set fire to his broomstick and the disguise went up in smoke.

Then along about Thanksgiving time the sparks began to fly. The Dramatics Group went into a huddle and came out with an appropriate play about the things we in America have to be thankful for.

Before we even knew it, the Yuletide season was upon us, but the Girl Reserves were prepared. They presented a beautiful Recognition Service, followed by scenes of Christmas in every land and carols by the orchestra and chorus. The parents were invited, and Agent 24 attended the affair dressed as an aged grandmother. Isn't it too bad he was thrown out before they served the refreshments?

But now for the news of the second semester. You have already heard about the "Cupid's Capers" dance when Charlotte Baker was crowned Queen of Hearts. That was the time Agent 2 went as Cupid and flitted around with his bow and arrow.

About this time came a new idea—swimming parties. It was in the "Y" pool that the girls tried to drown each other in a game of water polo. We don't know the exact score, for Agent 6 was still under water when we last heard of him.

Returning the Hi-Y's invitation, the girls played hostesses to the boys at a joint Hi-Y-Girl Reserve meeting in March. Jack MacPhee set up a very elaborate system of blackmail after showing the movies taken at the Youth Conference at Camp Fitch. Later everyone wore himself out trying to square dance, regardless of this the meeting was pronounced a success.

The remainder of the year progressed rapidly with the girls displaying their latent talents on a chapel program, the G. R. Spring Prom, (Agent 9 waited too long and couldn't get a date), the installation of new officers, and a bang-up picnic to close a triumphant year.

However, no report on the activities of this organization would be complete without mentioning the interest groups. Agent K-3 snooped about and came up with the following items. It was the Handcraft group that slaved so hard over those programs and favors, spending many an hour in deep consultation. The Red Cross couldn't supply the War Service group with knitting yarn, so they devoted their energy to First Aid. The teacher is expected to recover within a year or so. The Music group provided much entertainment with both an orchestra and a mixed chorus. And finally the Dramatics group watched rehearsals at the Youngstown Playhouse, and tried its own hand at producing drama here at home.

Thus an entertaining and successful year has come to an end, with Donna Sauer and her cabinet leading the girls onward, ably advised by Miss Smith and Miss Jones.

This is Agent G. R.-43 signing off—I've got another assignment to get busy on and I can't waste any more time here.

"I will do my best to honor God, my country, and my community, and to be at all times a loyal true member of the Girl Reserves." This is the pledge which every Girl Reserve earnestly strives to keep.

We Girl Reserves would like to know what we have accomplished socially and otherwise during the past year. Let's peak in on the pages of the secretary's book, faithfully kept by Pat Agey.

We see on the first page that the president, Marilyn Liechty, opened the initial meetnig. All freshman and sophomore girls interested in joining the Girl Reserves were invited. The Cabinet members were introduced and Miss Garver explained the true meaning of Girl Reserves.

"Oh, yes, we remember! We went home limping!" It was social chairman Carol Sloan's first party and a big success, too. All the girls got acquainted while waltzing, jitterbugging, square-dancing, and folk-dancing. When everyone was exhausted (no wonder!), cider and doughnuts were served and disappeared quickly.

"Have you paid your dues?" That was the membership drive and quite successful it was, for about 125 girls joined Collega.

Turning the pages, we see that the program chairman, Normajean Taylor, arranged for several very interesting and educational speakers. The new Girl Reserve secretary, Miss Bouterse, gave a vivid account of her life and her work with the "Y. W." She also commented on the behavior of the girls at the co-ed camp. "What did we do now? Oh, I remember! Sh. "Mrs. Martin Krieger took us for an imaginary trip to China at another meeting. We started from Youngstown and traveled west to California, the Hawaiian Islands, a few Japanese islands and finally arrived in China. It was a most enjoyable trip.

"Hm, a Doll's Tea at the Y. W." We all worked diligently dressing dolls for poor youngsters so that they could have a Merry Christmas. We were rewarded, however, with an array of lovely dolls and unusual entertainment at the Doll's Tea. Mary Lou Joshua kept us well informed on the many activities of the Y. W. C. A.

Next we notice that elections were held. Results? Lois Krichbaun as vice-president and "Babs" Zeisler as publicity chairman.

One of the big events of the year was the annual Recognition Service to which all mothers were invited. Among the participants were Ila Rae Ewing and Alyce Steck. The symbols of this service were color and light. After the newcomers' candles were lighted, Mariann Malony led us in singing Christmas carols. Peggy Lou Egan gave an inspiring reading. We ended this beautiful service with refreshments—ice cream and cookies.

It's not in the book, but we remember selling refreshments at all the football and basketball games and bringing in large profits. More fun, too!

The spirit of our meetings and the activities of our club show that we, the Girl Reserves, have fulfilled our pledge. We all sincerely thank Miss Wisler and Miss Garver for their many helpful hints throughout the year.

This is secret agent B. H. S. 11 reporting on the moves of the Hi-Y club. The fellowship group started off with a bang which grew louder as time went on.

Agent V-8 gave me a record of the meetings, and these are the headliners. Mr. Glasgow spoke to the fellows on education, and Mr. Henderson gave an informative talk about their school. At still another meeting, Mr. Griffith informed the members about jobs and duties of senators. One more meeting was made worth-while by Dr. Altdoerffer who spoke on the anatomy of the human body.

Here's an account of the social events as told to me by S-X. The club first had a hay-ride, and although the weather was rather chilly, most of the members had their loves to keep them warm. Although some lost their nerve and forgot to bring dates, the fellows had lots of fun at a Halloween Party. Later the boys had their theatre party at the Warner, which was greatly enjoyed by everyone. After Christmas the all-city dance was held at the Y. M. C. A., where everyone arrived safely by streetcar and other patriotic ways.

Agent P-U told me the success of the club was due largely to Mr. Hershberger and Mr. Thompson, the advisers, whose wisdom was of great help to all; Fred Green, the president, who made a very fine chief executive indeed; Bart Cooper, vice president; Al Kloes, the secretary, and Lee Leppo, the treasurer. All other branches were handled by Harold Hedrick, Russell Shaeffer, Louis Cosentino and Donald Snavely.

From the reports of my reliable agents, I deduce that the club had a highly successful year.

Well, here we are at the office of Professor Hokus Pokus, the crystal gazer, ready to delve deep into the past of the Torch Club.

The first picture in the magic ball is one of a table, around it are sitting some boys—they must be the officers—and two men. There's Gordon Sarchet, the president, overseeing all of the club's activities; next to him sits vice president Lloyd Dalbey, his chief aide. On the other side of Gordon is Jack Yoder, the secretary, who is handling the business affairs with much ability. Beside Jack is Dave Proctor, the treasurer, striving to keep the finances out of the red. Sitting at the ends of the table are Mr. Smith and Mr. Eversole, the advisers, giving much beneficial assistance to the members.

Look what's happening now. The vision's fading and new pictures are forming. Some are sliding by quickly, but a few are slowing up. They look like meetings to me, and the ones slowing up must be the most important. Here's one stopping now—why it's Mr. Tidd speaking to the members and they seem to be enjoying this kind of talking-to. There's another one with Mr. Smith as speaker. Here come some more feature meetings with speakers and entertainment. All the meetings must have been successful, because none whizzed by so fast that we couldn't see them.

The vision's fading again—but here comes another. These must have been the social events. There are some fellows at a skating party—they look as if they're having fun. Here's another picture, it's the lobby of some building. It must be a theatre party. Look at those girls twittering and jittering over there. Those boys look sort of jumpy too—first dates.

Again the vision's fading and this time the globe is becoming dark. This is the end of our little visit, because the Professor is covering up his magic ball. So we thank Mr. Hokus Pokus for his information, say good-bye and go on our way.

"Ici," "Ici," "Me voici," and the French club was off to a good start for another year. At the first meeting Harold Hedrick was elected to head the list of officers for the year. Those assisting him were Hazel St. Clair, vice president; Patty MacDonald, secretary; Odessa Stacy, treasurer; and Margaret Liechty, program chairman. Miss Jones assisted the club as adviser.

The meetings, held twice a month, proved to be very entertaining and valuable. Although our programs were not exactly conducted in French, we studied customs and enjoyed various games from France. We sang many French songs, and each meeting was closed with the singing of "La Marseillaise," the French National Anthem.

Highlights of the social season included Christmas and Valentine parties. The Christmas party featured a gift exchange, French carols, and a three-point landing on the floor, executed by Thelma Rankine. Having enjoyed refreshments, we went home with wishes for a "Joyeux Noel" ringing in our ears. At the Valentine party in February, everyone had a grand time running from the Wolf, namely Harold Hedrick ('twas only a game.) An exchange of Valentines and refreshments ended the evening in a hilarious style.

The last club get-together was the picnic, held at Stitt Pavilion on May 21. There, all the members gorged themselves on hamburgers and the usual picnic fare, waded in the creek and had a good time altogether.

Thus the French Club ended another year very successfully, thanks to Miss Jones and to each member who showed such co-operation. In parting may we say to all "Au Revoir."

ORCHESTRA--STAR SPANGLED RHYTHM

1—2—3—Ready! The Boardman High School Orchestra has begun forty-five minutes of practicing. The twenty-five members of this group play together every Monday and Wednesday under the able direction of Mr. Minter.

The orchestra here at Boardman High School is in its twelfth consecutive year, and we feel proud of its many accomplishments. We will not forget how we marched to and from Chapel programs to the beat of a peppy march. Nor shall we forget Commencement night when we, as graduating Seniors, walked proudly down the aisle to the tune of "Graduation," rendered so well by the orchestra. Many times during the year the assemblies were also enriched with special numbers by this group. Then, too, individual members from the organization played solos for various school functions and other meetings, such as the P.T.A. Some of these soloists were Tyrus Frolund, Doris Hurtig, Olfred Miller, and Patty MacDonald. Much credit is due the orchestra for practicing so conscientiously and for playing in chapel, despite the fact that the director, Mr. Minter, was absent for several days.

Some of the pieces played during the year were "Over There and Other War Melodies," "Country Garden," and "Pomp and Circumstance." We believe that through the efforts of our orchestra, we have developed a better appreciation of music during our stay at Boardman High School, and we thank them for the contribution they have made.

In the Boardman High School band there are fifty-eight talented musicians under the able direction of Mr. Minter. We certainly heard strange sounds when the band practiced during the seventh period. This year they came out with no less than a sensational "German" band. Let's not take it too seriously. A most appropriate song which they gave was "Der Fuehrer's Face." The band played a grand piece by Sousa, "Thunderer." (It sounded like it, too.) Another popular hit which blazed forth from the band was "Praise the Lord and Pass the Ammunition" and they undoubtedly interpreted it, "Praise the Lord and Pass the New Edition."

These ambitious music-makers performed at every home football game. In their bright new uniforms they were a fine group led by a handsome drum-major and color guards. Without a question, they helped bring about those splendid scores! As for those pretty major-ettes, they were tops!! College marches were the most popular pieces played during the football games. They introduced some new formations, mainly, an anchor, a football, and an airplane. This energetic group also participated at all the home basketball games.

The B. H. S. band did not take part in the music festival this spring. Why? Gas rationing!

To Mr. Minter, for the time and energy he spent, the band gives three rousing cheers.

BAND--STRIKE UP THE BAND

Leading the band this year at the home football games, the high-stepping drum majorettes and the color guards presented a striking contrast to the maroon and gold uniforms of the music makers. Dressed in white costumes trimmed with gold braid, Jean Miles and Bettylou Whitehouse displayed their ability with batons and performed acrobatic dances to the delight of all their audiences.

Early in the season, four Freshmen were added to the corps of majorettes, making a total of six. The experienced girls coached the new ones and the entire troupe made an impressive array as they danced and twirled their batons between halves at the football and basketball games. One basketball game was enlivened by the addition of a square dance called by Jimmy Warren.

"Ladies and gentlemen—may I present to you those song birds of Boardman, this group with outstanding ability—the chorus."

"As leader of the group, Mr. Minter, could you tell us a little about your class?"

"I'd be glad to. This group, consisting of 120 pupils, was chosen from those high school students having a genuine interest in music. In addition to having an interest in music, each person must be willing to work for the welfare of the whole group. Classes meet twice during the week with the following student accompanists: Patricia MacDonald, Yvonne Brenneman, Mariann Malony, Virginia Kachmar, Marilyn Pounders, and Helen Roberts. Touching very briefly on music appreciation, the group has centered its attention on theory for a better understanding of their music. You know, it doesn't hurt to brush up on even the simplest fundamentals. During our first semester, we had two quartets who performed several times for chapel. Is there something else you'd like to know?"

"Yes, Mr. Minter, what type of music does the chorus render and when do they perform?"

"A very wide selection of music includes anthems, patriotic music, and semi-classical music. This variety holds the interest of the class and at the same time prepares them for various programs throughout the year. A few of the newest are: "Come to the Gay Feast of Song," A. E. Reed; "I Love Life," Manna Zucca; and "The Liberty Bell," John Philip Sousa.

"The chorus group sings at the Spring Festival each year and performs on various chapel programs. Acting as a choir, they attended the baccalaureate service."

"Well, thanks an awful lot, Mr. Minter, and I might say for the students, "It just wouldn't be chorus without Mr. Minter."

MR. ALLEN—Nice going, Rib, you really put out a ball team this year. The lone touchdown scored against the Spartans is proof that you put all your time into making the team what it was. Congratulations to you!

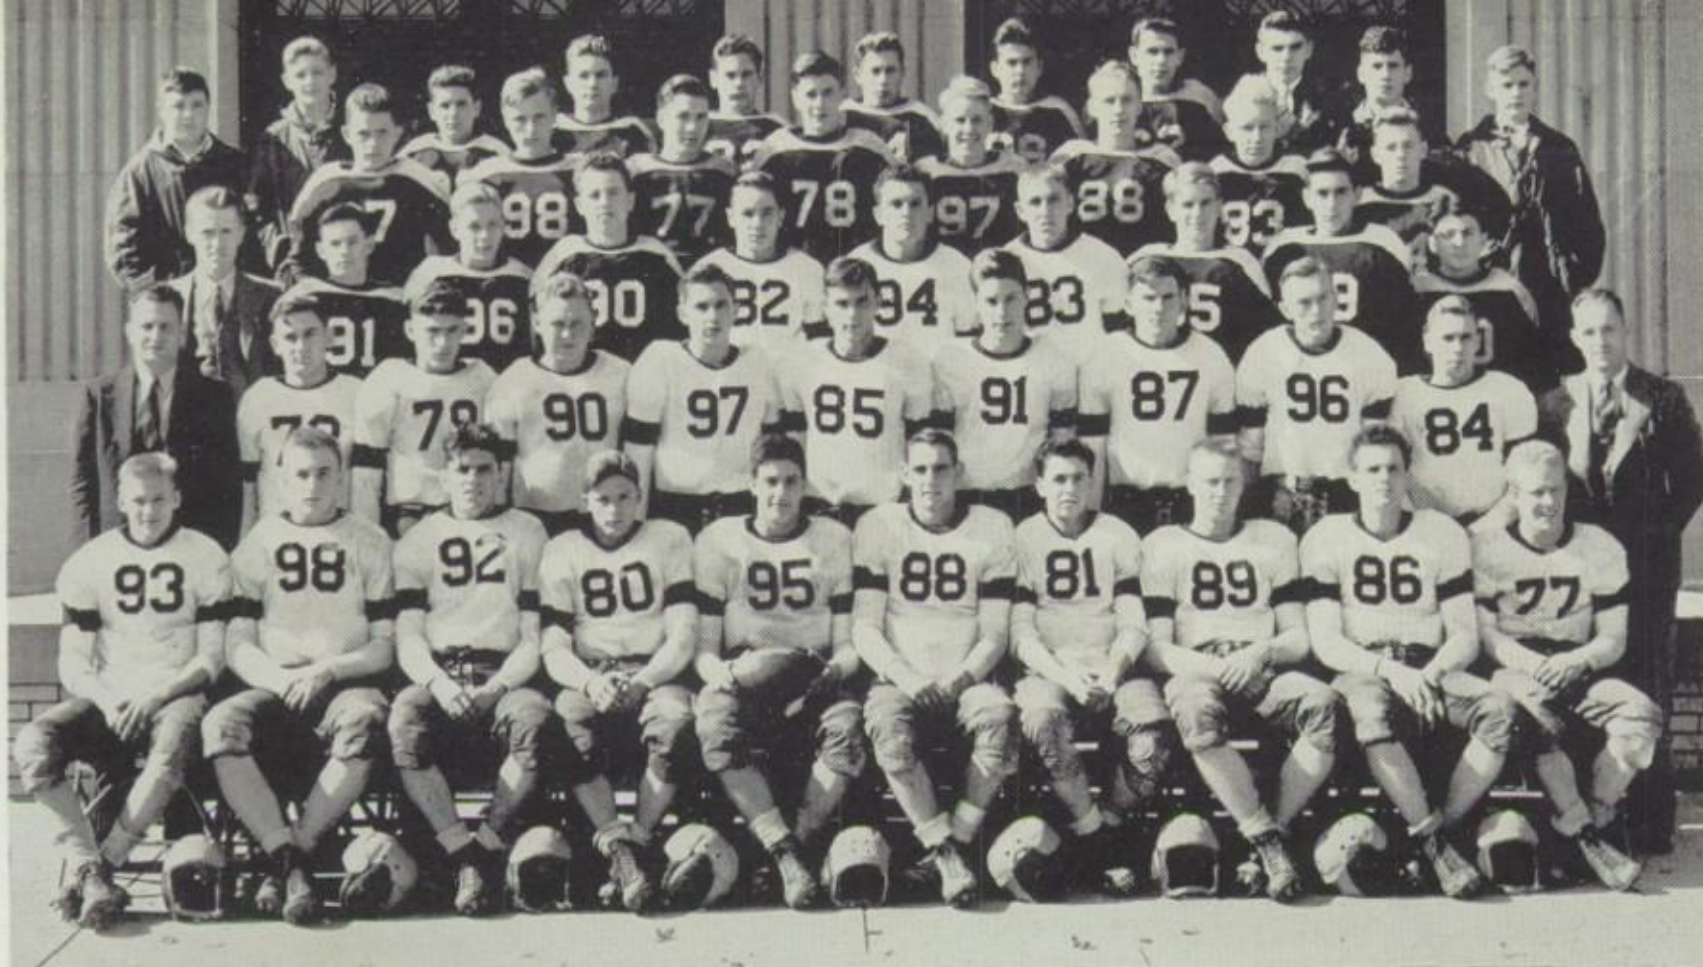

MR. ROBINETTE—Because of your tireless efforts, your driving enthusiasm, and your real coaching ability, our basketball team was successful. Twelve wins in fifteen starts is a nice little record. Good going, Robby!

MR. HATCHER—Hats off to you, Coach Hatcher. Your football tactics were priceless to us—as well as your good-natured sense of humor! As a spark plug, you're tops. Thanks Coach!

MR. HOOD—Besides building our boys into fine manly specimens with your "Commando training," you've introduced a new activity to school life—tennis. Nice going, Colonel!

MR. HOUSTON—You're building for the future of Boardman—a building process which is invaluable! Your handling of the Junior High football and basketball teams, along with your varsity football work, has given you a soft place in our hearts. Congratulations, Mr. Houston!

This year Boardman's football team really was spectacular. It won the Tri-County League Championship with an undefeated and almost unscored-upon record. The lone touchdown scored against it was made by Newton Falls in the first game of the season. During the season the Boardman High School Gridders piled up a total of 349 points to 6 for our opponents.

In the Louisville game, the team broke Louisville's six-year old jinx by shattering that team's fifteen game winning streak 53-0. In addition they set a new school record for scoring in one game.

Captained and sparked by powerful Ray Rich, the team did some really rare playing. Powerful line plunges, long runs, and extraordinary passing plays kept the spectators on edge.

At the end of the season, six of the fellows, Rich, Murdock, Jenkins, Marshall, Kemper, and Glover were given berths on the first string All Tri-County team, and Ray Rich was made captain of it. Morgan, Fidram, and Gething were on the second team. When the all-state team was chosen, Murdock was on the third team and Rich was given honorable mention. At the football banquet twenty-five fellows were given well-deserved varsity letters and Eddie Morgan was named as next year's captain.

The best of luck to the team of '44. Let's hope for another '43's!!

FOOTBALL--SOMETHING TO SHOUT ABOUT

FOOTBALL--SOMETHING TO SHOUT ABOUT

Boardman High's veteran grid aggregation, paced by Captain Ray Rich, opened the 1942 season by defeating Newton Falls 19-6. Boardman held the edge on the field most of the game until the fourth quarter, when Newton Falls got its only marker by a long pass into the end zone. Boardman had little trouble winning over its old rival, Lowellville, by a score of 33-0. Rich, Fidram, and Glover paced the scoring attack throughout the game. Many fumbles marred the last quarter as the teams battled in mid-field. Neither team scored in the last period. Unleashing spectacular scoring plays, the Spartans made an impressive debut in the 1942 Tri-County League race by drubbing Lisbon 41-0. This was Boardman's third victory of the season but the initial league triumph. Rich, Kemper, Glover, and Jenkins were the outstanding players for Boardman. The whole team displayed good blocking and excellent tackling.

The Boardman Hi team continued to stay in the winning column by defeating Fitch 40-0. The fleet backs ran wild while the line played brilliant defensive tactics. Fitch was in possession of the ball most of the second quarter but failed to score. Boardman came back in the final quarter to score twice. Boardman Hi's football squad shattered an old jinx by defeating Louisville 58-0. This put the Boardman squad in first place in the Tri-County race. All the team excelled in this game. Glover, Rich, and Fidram ran the pigskin to the best of their ability. This was the greatest scoring spree that Boardman has ever had. The old record for scoring was 46 points. The Spartans smothered Columbiana 53-0. The visitors offered little opposition as the Boardmanites ran wild. Columbiana was held by the Reserves in the third period. This, the Spartans' third League victory, kept them in first place in the Tri-County.

FOOTBALL--SOMETHING TO SHOUT ABOUT

The Spartans copped their fourth league game by defeating East Palestine 40-0. The Boardman gridders held their own throughout the game. The Reserves held the East Palestine squad in the last quarter. This increased the winning streak of Boardman to eleven games. Boardman Hi's powerhouse forged the eighth link in its victory chain by whipping Minerva 39-0. The Spartans held the visitors by an edge of 14-3 on first downs. Rich, Gething, and Glover starred for the Boardman gridders. At Sebring, the team concluded its season. The game was the most thrilling of the season, with both teams playing bang-up ball. Playing with their very souls, the Spartans smashed through with a 26-0 victory to complete an undefeated season—and take the title of Tri-County Champs.

 BOTTOM ROW:—W. Hunter, E. Reineke, J. Campbell, D. Jenkins, R. Johnston.

RAY RICH—Ray was on the All Tri-County team for three years. His ability to run the team in the clinches was one of his many attributes. As final honor, Ray gained honorable mention on the All-State team.

JACK MURDOCK—Jack was on the All-State third team. His splendid playing at the guard position saved many scores against the Spartans. His opponents say that Jack is like a brick wall.

JUNIOR GLOVER—Junior was quarterback in his senior year. His speed in running spread-plays was the cause of many a Spartan score.

DAVID JENKINS—Dave was one of the best linemen on the squad. Hard tackles and outguessing the opponents in plays were some of his qualities.

ROY KEMPER—Roy was on the receiving end of many a pass that brought victory to the Spartans.

RICHARD JOHNSTON—Dick was a shifty pass-receiver who played a great defensive game and one of the best kickers on Boardman's team.

FRED GETHING—Junior was out most of the season because of injuries. But his splendid do-or-die playing was one of the reasons for the success of the team.

JAMES CAMPBELL—One of the best defensive players on the team, Jim was called "Submarine Soup."

PAUL UHRIN—Also one of the linemen of the Boardman squad, Paulie was a great guard and one of the best blockers on the line.

WAYNE HUNTER—Wayne played the line. His defensive tackling and offensive tactics were of great help to the team.

TOM McVEY—Tom, who played backfield in his Senior year, was a whiz on offensive running and blocking.

ED REINEKE—Ed played the line both offensively and defensively. He was among the best tackles and blockers on the team.

FOOTBALL--SOMETHING TO SHOUT ABOUT

It all started with a fairly good fall practice—and ended with an undefeated Tri-County championship!

When fall practice started a few weeks before the opening of school, the outlook for the year was not too bright. Despite the fact that loads of good football material was in school, many of the fellows did not turn out on that first day of football activities. But gradually, day by day, the boys did turn out—and with Rib's careful, hard training were molded into a well co-ordinated gridiron machine!

In all our games, even though we defeated each of our opponents by a large score, our boys remained good, clean, football players. They worked hard between games, and put their hearts as well as their muscles into each play. It was their good-natured fighting spirit which won the admiration and cheers of everyone.

For the first time in 10 years, the undisputed Tri-County Championship is ours! Bouquets go to everyone connected with football for our outstanding season—to Rib, Coach Hatcher, Coach Houston, our football heroes—and to you, the student body. We had outstanding coaches, natural football players, and overwhelming school spirit—you just can't beat that!

So hats off to all of you—and may this year long be remembered!

FIRST ROW:—E. Morgan, G. Simon, H. Lyon, F. Marshall, A. Andio, J. Black, W. Glover, J. Andio, J. Metz.

SECOND ROW:—Mr. Hood (Ass't Coach), L. Dalbey, J. Bott, W. Moran, H. Zimmerman, A. Smith, J. Jardine, C. Ebersbacher, Mr. Robinette (Coach).

THIRD ROW:—L. Iekes, R. Bretz, G. Emch, P. Walter, J. Semko.

Displaying typical Spartan fighting spirit, this year's basketball team, by winning twelve games in fifteen starts, made the best record that any cage squad has had in Boardman for six years.

In the first game of the season, we realized that our team was on the beam. Their speed and perfect co-ordination dazzled the spectators, but seeing only the games, we don't appreciate the hard, steady work that went into making our team the fast-moving, quick-thinking quintet that it was. The fellows battled hard, playing some of the best basketball we've ever seen.

Three of them earned places on the All Tri-County teams. Tony Andio, high scorer on the varsity, was given a berth on the first team, while Fred Marshall and Harold Lyons made the second team and honorable mention respectively.

The reserve team had an impressive record of fifteen wins in as many starts. During their season they chalked up a score of 662 to their opponents aggregate of 334 points.

The basketeters downed Ursuline in their first Northeastern Ohio tournament game with a last-quarter spurt, but were later nosed out by the powerful, sharpshooting Scienceville five.

Next year's team appears to be promising, for the following will be returning: Lyons, Metz, Joe Andio, Marshall, Geo. Simon, Walters, Jardine, Ebersbacher, Moran, and Morgan.

The best of luck to you, kids!

BASKETBALL--LIFE BEGINS AT 8:30

LOWELLVILLE—Boardman's basketball team began its season in championship style by defeating Lowellville 34-28. Glover led the Spartans in scoring with eight points to his credit. The reserves also won their opener 34-28.

FITCH—The Fitch game was closely contested with the score tied at the first quarter and also at the half. Faulkner managed to net six points in the fourth frame to overcome Fitch's third quarter lead 23-21. Jim Metz was high scorer in the reserve game of which the score was 57-21.

NILES—The Boardman High cagers chalked up their third victory when they swamped Niles 44-22. Tony Andio led the scoring attack with a total of ten points. The reserves brought home another victory with a score of 39-20.

RAYEN—The Spartans trampled Rayen 51-28, by taking an early lead which they held throughout three quarters. The basketekers kept up a varied bombardment that stumped the Rayen quintet completely. The reserves copped their fourth win by a score of 45-33.

LISBON—After a slow start, Boardman's sharpshooting five ran wild over Lisbon to win their first Tri-County game by a score of 56-24. Lyons, Tony Andio, and Jenkins led the scoring spree. The reserves won easily by a score of 62-12.

EAST PALESTINE—The Spartan quintet won its third Tri-County loop fray by upsetting East Palesine 48-24. Tony Andio showed his amazing shooting ability by making 21 points. The reserves laced the East Palestine High reserves 59-19.

LOUISVILLE—The cagers, led by Tony Andio, continued to stay in the winning column by beating Louisville. During the third quarter, Louisville threatened to overcome our lead but the Spartans regained their stride and won 39-31. Ebersbacher was high scorer in the reserve game, the score of which was 64-27.

POLAND—Held back at first by the Poland quintet's close defensive work, the Boardman five resorted to long shots and rolled up a score of 39-20. The scoring attack was led by Lyons and Jenkins who made eleven and nine points respectively. The reserves took their eighth game by a score of 39-19.

SEBRING—In what was probably the most exciting basketball game ever played, the Spartans lost their undefeated record to Sebring. The score was tied 31-31 at the end of the regular playing time, but the Potters sank several long shots in the overtime to make the score 39-33. In the best reserve game ever witnessed by Boardman fans, the reserves won 30-25.

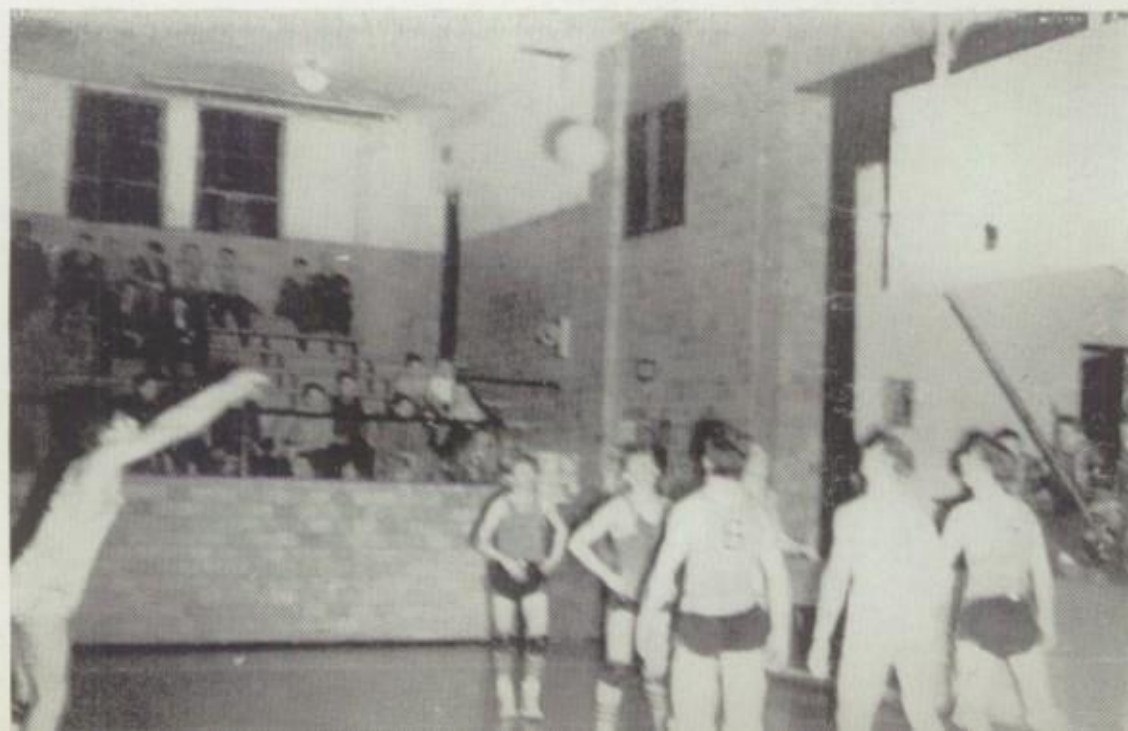

MEMORIAL—The Boardman five, led in scoring by Tony Andio, out-classed Memorial to win their ninth victory. The Spartans led 14-1 at the end of the first quarter, but were slowed somewhat by Memorial's change of players in the second quarter. The final score was 34-23. The reserves downed Memorial's reserves 56-26.

MINERVA—Our quintet's strong offensive and defensive tactics brought about one more win for the cagers. Tony Andio and George Simon led the scoring with ten points each as Boardman swamped Minerva, 38-23. This was the team's fourth win in the Tri-County series. The reserves remained undefeated with a score of 56-26.

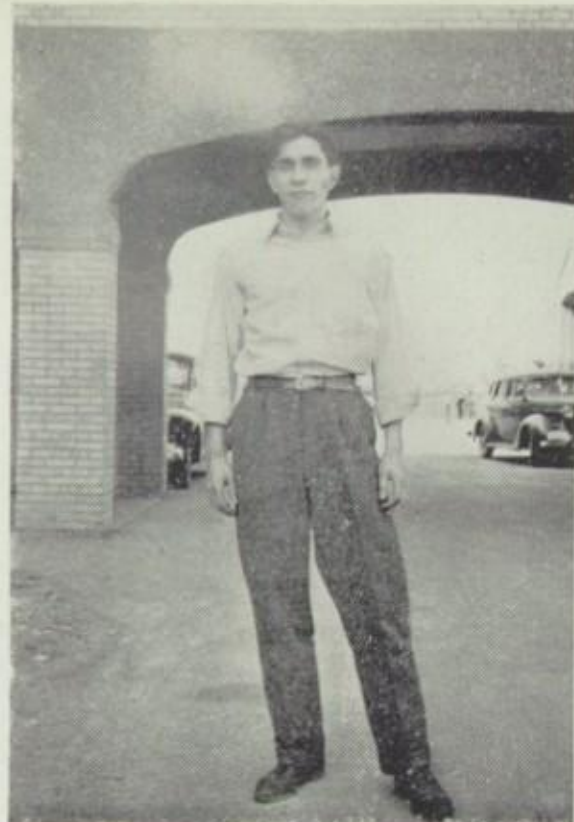

COLUMBIANA—Boardman's basketball team took its second beating of the season from the hands of Columbiana. In the hard fought battle they marked up a score of 32 to Columbiana's 50. Moran, Jenkins, and Joe Andio starred. The reserves again won, 45-36.

NEWTON FALLS—With a last-quarter spurt, the smoothly running Newton Falls five gained a 46-34 edge over our cagers. Lyons and Tony Andio were high scorers. The reserves continued their undefeated course by a score of 45-17.

HUBBARD—In the last game of the regular season, the Spartans handed the Hubbard Tigers a 45-35 trouncing. Harold Lyons and Tony Andio led the offense getting ten and nine points respectively. The reserves ended their undefeated season by taking over the Chaney reserves, 52-23.

TONY ANDIO

JUNIOR GLOVER

ANTHONY ANDIO—Tony was captain and high point man on the team. He is rated as the best center and rebound man in the county. He was hard working and the most outstanding man on the team.

JAMES BLACK—Jim was a tall guard and a steady, dependable player. He always put his all into every game.

JUNIOR GLOVER—Junior has what it takes to make a really great basketball player—speed and fighting spirit. He stopped many passes that looked like sure things to our opponents.

Boardman's track team has lost only three dual meets in six years, a record that it can well be proud of. Besides the dual meets Boardman competes annually in many of the larger state meets, some of which include: Mansfield Relays, Canton McKinley Relays, Newark Relays, Zanesville Relays, N. E. O. District Meet, Salem Night Relays, and the State Meet at Columbus.

"Rib" expects his team, led by co-captains Bart Cooper and Junior Glover, to finish high in every meet which they enter. Some of the boys expected to carry the burden are Cooper, hurdles; Glover, mile; Frame, high jump; the shuttle hurdle relay team of Fitchet, Frame, Glover, and Cooper; and the two-mile relay team of Jardine, Semko, Loveland, and Glover.

The Spartans opened the season by finishing second to a strong Mt. Lebanon team in a field of 14 teams, at the Pitt Indoor Meet. Our two-mile relay team broke the Pitt record with a time of 8:42.7. Cooper also smashed a record, by running the 50 yard high hurdles in 6.6 seconds.

Much credit goes to "Rib" and his assistant, "Dave" Hatcher, for their fine work in building a team which should rank as one of the greatest in Boardman's history. As the Crier goes to press the following meets are still to be held:

Bartley Cooper holds the school record in the low hurdles and has broken many others at track meets all over the state. He also specialized in high hurdles.

Wilfred Glover, Boardman's mile and 880 star, has run some of the fastest anchor laps ever seen in the two-mile relay.

David Loveland is a versatile speedster who starred in everything from the 440 to the two-mile relay.

Thomas McVey's long legs enabled him to be an outstanding trackster in both the 440 and the 880.

Richard Johnston won his athletic reputation with extraordinary discus throwing and speedy low hurdling.

Russell Shaffer was noted for his fast running of the 220 and 440.

Bartley Cooper and Junior Glover were co-captains of this year's track team.

The Girls' Athletic Association was organized in Boardman just last year, but it has become one of the most outstanding organizations in the school. The membership has increased to one hundred and eighty girls and great interest has been shown in all of the club's activities.

The season's round of events started with a lively party in honor of the new members. A cabinet, headed by Alice Raful, was elected. Other officers were vice-president, Marion Egan; Alyce Steck, secretary; Harriet Oestmann, recording secretary of points; Shirley Skinner, treasurer; Marjorie Starkweather, intermural manager; and Mariann Malony, assistant intermural manager.

Volleyball games were the first major events of the year in the sports field. Although it was a new sport to most of us, it soon became a favorite. The sophomore "A" team started the season by copping the tournament.

Before we realized it, the basketball season was on us. Class teams were chosen and the tournament was played. It was really quite a struggle. In one game, three overtimes had to be played before the winner was determined. The final winner of the tournament was the sophomore "A" 's again. Congratulations and medals were given to the winners in both volleyball and basketball tournaments.

In spite of the fact that most of us were victims of "spring fever," much enthusiasm was shown in the baseball tourney. At the time the Crier goes to press baseball season is well under way, but the winning team has not yet been decided.

We want to extend our appreciation to coach Wisler for her enthusiastic guidance and to Alice Raful and her cabinet for all they have done to improve and build G. A. A. to the swell organization it is today.

This is the creed of the Girl's Athletic Association:

Keep the rules.

Keep faith with your comrades.

Keep your temper.

Keep yourself fit.

Keep a stout heart in defeat.

Keep your pride under in victory.

Keep a clear mind, a sound soul, and a healthy body.

Play the game.

The Boardman Rifle Club is fast becoming one of the most popular organizations in the school. Under the able leadership of Mr. Pyle, the membership has already reached the fifty mark. The main purpose of the club is to teach its members the proper use of arms, correct shooting positions, and most important of all—safety on the firing line.

The team opened the year with a loss to South, but followed it up with two victories over Wilson, one over Rayen, and another loss to South. The highlight of the year will be the All-City match on April 17, in which Boardman will attempt to cop the title.

Skillful shooting is an art not easily mastered; therefore, much praise is due to the members, who by practice and drill have made the club the swell organization it is today. Some of the better shooters of the group are: Lee Leppo, Dick Leppo, Bill Strang, Ed Foley, and Dick Jackson. We also extend our thanks to Mr. Hood for the interest he has shown in the club.

BOWLING TEAM

The Boardman High School Bowling Team, organized last year, continued through the 42-43 season to keep 'em rolling, under the guidance of Mr. Hatcher and Mr. Robinette.

The team had many close games and held eighth place in City High School Bowling League. With a banquet in April, the League ended its 1942-1943 season.

Jim Black held the captaincy of the team for most of the season with an average of 147.08 points in fifty games. The following boys made the team this year:

NAME	GAMES	AVERAGE
J. Black .....	50	147.08
E. Reineke .....	43	145.51
W. Hunter .....	20	141.95
D. Loveland .....	39	138.69
B. Cooper .....	53	133.32
B. Rich .....	19	122.79
D. Proctor .....	37	120.62

Best of luck to all of you fellows who will "keep 'em rolling" next year.

TOP PICTURE:—M. Joshua, C. Chuck, H. Hedrick, F. Green.
 BOTTOM PICTURE:—P. Egan, M. Egan, B. Caldwell.

The fine school spirit that was shown at the football and basketball games is something of which we can well be proud, for the crowds at this year's games were bigger and noisier than ever before. A large part of the credit for this enthusiasm must be given to the cheerleaders who were at every game to lead us in cheering the team on to victory.

Mary Lou Joshua, Charlotte Chuck, Fred Green, and Harold Hedrick were the faithful acrobats who directed our enthusiasm during football season. Later, during basketball season something new was added in the persons of Peggy Lou Egan and Becky Caldwell who will replace Harold and Fred when they graduate this year.

The cheerleaders say that much of the credit for their success is due to the faculty advisers who showed such great interest in the work that the kids did to make new cheers and put them over with a bang.

The best of luck next year, kids, and keep 'em yelling!!!

SEPTEMBER—"HERE WE GO AGAIN

- 8—Back in the old grind once more.
- 14—There seems to be a serious shortage of boys in 200 study halls.
- 18—Crime does not pay. According to Ken Finnie, Dick Tracy will eventually catch up with all check forgers.
- 20—Seniors present the first chapel for the benefit of the Freshies. Did you learn anything, kids?
- 21—Economics class comes up with the highly original idea that if you don't pay your electric bill, the lights will go out.
- 23—Not only the Freshies get lost. A stray pet from biology turned up in English class today. No need to worry, though—Miss Haberman isn't afraid of snakes.
- 24—Mr. Bohn—"Who were the carpetbaggers?"
Lillian Kiss:—"Men who carried their carpet around in bags."
- 26—First edition of this year's Bugle—hot off the press!
- 27—Did you see those Seniors hopping around after grasshoppers for biology?
- 30—Translation please! Beverly Wilcox informs French Class that her favorite recording is "Non Si Tranquille, S'il Vous Plait," by Tommy Dorsey.

OCTOBER—"REMEMBER THE DAY"

- 1—More business for the undertakers as the library opens and many are trampled in the rush.
- 2—Tsk, tsk—with all this government curtailment of zoot suits, Miss Haberman is likely to get into trouble with that sharp jacket she wore.
- 4—Lost:—One voice. If found, please return to Mary Lou Joshua.
- 6—Senior Class meeting. Third-termite Glover is in again.
- 7—That was certainly a persistent cat in Miss Garver's study hall. Every time they put it out the front door, it came right in the back door again.
- 9—What a workout those girls got in gym class! For two days they have been limping around school.

- 10—Joyce Bucheit can't understand why she lost her fingernail—she used her brother's airplane glue.
- 14—The librarians fifth period had to be reprimanded by the little students for too much talking.
- 15—Russell Skinner was certainly proud of his blue excuse.
- 18—That girl's football team, known as the "Boardman Grasscutters," is really tough. Mary Jane Carle found that out when she tackled Sue Brown.
- 21—Innocent little Joyce Patterson—"What is a blue excuse?"
- 22—Smile Purty! It's those annual pictures again.
- 25—Tommy Morris and Dick Aubrey treat chemistry class to ice-cold pop. No charge, either.
- 27—Ray Rich forgot and tried to tackle a bus stop. "Difficult, isn't it?"
- 30—Mrs. Weimer replaces Miss Green.

NOVEMBER—"LOOK WHO'S LAUGHING"

- 1—Barry Evans has forgotten all English and knows only the call of the wolves.
- 2—Freshmen and Seniors alike rejoice as the first snow falls.
- 5—Miss Reeser:—"They put me off the train before they put the rest of the bags off."
- 6—Have you seen Dutch Schultz's collection of drawings? It's quite a rogue's gallery.
- 7—Betty Gruger reigns as football queen.
- 8—Alvin Whetstone claims the honor of being the typical little moron.
- 11—Jack Yoder is taking vitamin pills to see if he can't grow up.
- 12—Mr. Hood must be pretty confused—he told his study hall to "Talk all stopping."
- 13—Tri-County Championship cinched as Spartans come through the season undefeated.
- 17—Miss Jones assured her French Class that her interest in Bordeaux wine is strictly from a cultural point of view.
- 18—Martha Purucker told Ace that she is sleepy because she's a spot-welder at Lockheed on the swing shift. Some line!

- 20—David C.:—"The train conductor didn't tell me to set my watch back an hour when I came across the country."
Bob Yeager:—"They don't usually, on freight trains."
- 23—The Bugle was distributed early this week. Charlotte scattered it all over the floor when she saw Russ Shaffer's white rat.
- 25—Dr. Burkhardt, from Columbus, spoke to the high school at a special assembly.
- 26—Sighs and tears as the said white rat proceeded to eat Mr. Eversole's turtle.
- 27—Miss Haberman:—"You've been introduced to Cupid, haven't you?" Martin Robinson:—"Who, me?"
- 29—Gas rationing brings a holiday to the kids, but more work to the teachers.

DECEMBER—"HOLIDAY INN"

- 1—G. R. - Hi-Y Vocational Conference.
- 2—Have you heard the latest about the "big bad wolfess"?
- 5—Final news bulletin. Flash! L'il Abner once again evades the eager clutches of Daisy Mae. What a life!
- 6—Bill Davies finally admits that the shoehorn he carries around is not for his shoes, it's for his pegged pants.
- 7—"Praise the Lord and Pass the Ammunition."
- 10—Buddy Beatty started the rumor that there ain't no Santa Claus.
- 12—That was quite a story Thelma June used to explain the cut over her eye. Editor's note:—It was absolutely true. I know.
- 13—Bob Haig (in Economics class):—"I want to argue about the next question." A little premature, aren't you, Bob?
- 14—In spite of gasoline and tire rationing, Grayce Ruscoe still runs her little station wagon—all over the top of her desk.
- 15—The Juniors really got poetic with their announcements of the Bi-weekly.
- 17—Mrs. Weimer:—"Will you please name the tragedies in that author's life?"
Salvator Consentino:—"Well, her father died, her mother was drowned, and her sister got married."
Mrs. Weimer:—"Tragedies?"

18—The question of the day—"Where were you during the blackout last night?"

19—There are more of last year's graduates at school than there are of this year's students.

JANUARY—"THIS ABOVE ALL"

4—There was quite a line-up waiting to be presented with blue excuses.

6—Pat Agey:—"I'm going to pass this test or burst." (Pop!!!)

7—After seeing the Stagecraft play, one anonymous Senior remarked, "I wish Alice Raful were my mother."

10—The Senior class comes up with fewer boys every day. Now it's Ivan Stacy and Huck Grant headed for the Marines.

11—It took some explaining to make Jane De Lucia realize that she is supposed to put the basketball in her own basket, not the other team's.

12—Donna Sauer was so generous with her birthday cake. She offered to let everyone smell it.

14—That cut Ted Lawton was exhibiting was caused by a rough date. At least that is his story.

15—It must have been cold. Bob Morelli wore two pairs of red flannels.

18—Bart Cooper wants it known that Charlotte asked him to give her that hot-foot.

19—To avoid the last minute rush, Anita Gallagher has already finished her Christmas shopping. This year's or last?

23—Why all the casualties? You have to slice your own bread now.

24—Who is the Junior who considers himself "God's Gift to the Women"?

27—Bob Heimbaugh has published his latest masterpiece, "To a Water-faucet." It is really fascinating.

29—After all, Herky, if you watched where you were going, you wouldn't fall over Mr. Bohn's wastebasket.

FEBRUARY—"THOSE WERE THE DAYS"

2—Bea Walker has come up with a new, scientific process for bleaching blue excuses. Should be profitable.

- 3—Miss Smith:—"Since flowers are an ideal gift, what kind would you suggest for gentlemen?"
Julius Fidram—"Roses, preferably four."
- 6—Charles Bixler:—"Can a person be punished for something he didn't do?"
Miss Garver:—"Certainly not."
Charles Bixler:—"Well, I haven't done my geometry."
- 7—Mary Ann Manchester:—"Ouch, I've bumped my crazy bone!"
Charlotte Chuck:—"Oh, well, comb your hair right and the bump won't show."
- 10—The noise in the halls? Just the annual subscription sale.
- 11—Charles Ebersbacher just can't seem to stay seated on those chairs in the library. He keeps falling off.
- 13—Three cheers for our champion jitterbug—that renowned rugcutter—George Bohn.
- 16—Ray Gransee doesn't think Shakespeare's writings are flowery, just a bit jivey.
- 19—Tsk, tsk—the things those Seniors didn't do when they had no teacher for French class. "Seven come eleven."
- 20—A lot of people wondered why Don Albert refused to get out of his seat after he sat on Mary Alsop's mirror and broke it—but we know, don't we.
- 24—Sue Brown's only regret is that she has but one life to give for her gym class.
- 27—Willie Cable's blue excuse didn't worry him much. Maybe it's because he's color blind.

MARCH—"REAP THE WILD WIND"

- 2—Ho-hum—more rationing.
- 3—Sir Walter Raleigh Neumann really put his coat down for Miriam Wiggins to walk on when she lost her shoe.
- 4—Harry Moldovan wants to know whether Santa Claus and Santa Anna are any relation.
- 5—If you hear anything about "Ginger" Morgan, it's only Eddie in disguise.
- 6—Just ask Gene Phillips how she likes her apple pie, and she'll tell you upside down—on the floor.
- 10—My! Wasn't Harold Hedrick just too, too fetching as a girl in the Hi-Y Play?
- 11—We know all about Lee Leppo now. We've watched his heart beat.

- 13—Someone should explain to Nancy Griffith that you just can't keep snowballs all day.
- 14—Mr. Eversole overplays the Freshman girls' generosity. When offered a handful of popcorn, he takes the whole bag.
- 16—Boardman competes in the N. E. O. Basketball Tournament.
- 17—The Wearing of the Green.
- 18—Shirley Kirsty almost had to walk home from the basketball game in her bare feet. Somehow she lost her shoes.
- 19—Maybe Bo's stepladder's being under the basket helped Elaine Burkhardt to have such a high score.
- 21—Miss Reeser:—"Do you think most of the people in this class are self-conscious?"
Bob Yeager:—"Nope—just unconscious."
- 24—Dick McVey's theme song is "You'd be so nice to go out with."
- 29—Deak Van Cure's only desire is to belong to the National Hobo Society. Hi, ya bum!

APRIL—"FOR ME AND MY GAL"

- 1—Mr. Hatcher has at long last run out of all his "funny" jokes.
- 3—Ahhhh—Spring. It has now unofficially set in.
- 4—Stageset Benefit. "Spirit of '43."
- 6—That giggle water certainly has strange effects, hasn't it, Augustine?
- 7—Mary Graff didn't fall downstairs, she fell upstairs. These Freshmen!
- 8—Pat Lawton:—"Is your hair naturally curly?"
Barb Williamson:—"No, it's a put-up job."
- 11—What a case!! Dick (Slippery Sam) Jackson was on trial for murder in civics class. Sad that the jury convicted him! He was a good kid.
- 12—Bill Hamilton wasn't satisfied to walk out of English class by himself. He had to take George Steele with him.
- 13—Jimmy Rindin just loves to "Heil Hitler", but not in the customary way.
- 14—Hmmm! Betsy Jones would like to know just exactly what "Old Black Magic" is.
- 16—Even Mr. Tidd can't wake up those sleepers in study hall.

- 17—Bill Metz would like to have Charles Atlas' build, Tyrone Power's smile, Robert Taylor's hair, and Betty Grable.
- 20—You should have heard the things "Truck" Marshall said while he was delirious after that knockout.
- 23—No more Veronica Lake hair-do's. Government orders.
- 24—There were quite a few embarrassed people when Jack McPhee finished exposing them at the G. R. - Hi-Y meeting.
- 28—You've all heard that song about "Queenie", but did you know who it is? None other than our own Ed Rose.

MAY—" 'TILL WE MEET AGAIN"

- 1—What a play! Bob Yeager as Hitler and Jimmy Campbell as Satan.
- 3—One poor senior claims he will have to graduate in his bare feet. No ration stamp for shoes.
- 4—Byron Sweeney has started now to be a good boy. He wants Santa to bring him a "C" card.
- 5—Ted Lobinger has come to the conclusion that he must shave once a month to keep that well-groomed look."
- 7—Seniors put their "Best Foot Forward."
- 12—Jack Graft came up with this new system of letter grading. A—awful, B—better, C—classy, and D—dandy. Most of his compositions are dandy.
- 14—Audrey Jackson has it all figured out—only 48 more hours of school.
- 15—Junior-Senior Prom.
- 17—Things have now gotten to the point where the Seniors are playing marbles and skipping rope with the grade school kids.
- 23—Baccalaureate.
- 24—Semester tests.
- 26—Picnics, picnics, and more picnics.
- 28—The final news—report cards.
- 29—Commencement. Good-bye.

This year of 1942-1943 has been one of record-breaking events . . . Remember the Roosevelt-Churchill conference at Casablanca . . . the rationing program . . . everyone dreaming of a "White Christmas" and moaning as Miller joined the army . . . Frankie Sinkwich reigning as the hero of the sports field . . . the opening of the second front . . . the battles of Midway and Guadalcanal . . . "Yankee Doodle Dandy" and the rise of Paul Henreid as the heart-throb of the movie-goin' gals?

Here at Boardman, we too have been making history . . . history that will live in the annals of our Alma Mater . . . We seniors are sorry to leave and we hope you will miss us . . . We want you to miss Charlotte and her insistence that you make the deadline . . . Donna Mae and her screwy poetry . . . Wilfred and his many girl-friends . . . Fred and his changing voice . . . Thelma threatening to cut off the heads of the annual staff . . . Dive and Frances-belle digging up feature for the Bugle and the rest of us trying to give them something to write about.

Now, it's time to part—but we won't say "Good-bye"—just "We'll be seeing you."

Dear Tom:—NOthing ever happens here. Write us aNOther letter aNOw.
Jimmie was asking about you MONday. NOW we have to say good-bye.

THE OTHER ONE

A young Polish pilot attached to the RAF wished to send a message of goodwill to a friend in a squadron detailed for a special job.

The message he wanted to give was "God preserve you," but, not knowing how to express it in English, he consulted a Polish-English dictionary. That dictionary gave him a choice of two words, "preserve" and "pickle."

He chose the wrong one.

SORRY WE ASKED

Friend:—"Well, been fishing, eh? Caught anything, old man?"

Angler (grimly):—"Yes, indeed. Caught the 9:10 there and the 5:47 back. Caught in a storm. Caught a cold. And boy, will I catch it when I get home!"
